Estimate of U-Boat Losses Cut in Hah

Losses Cut in Fight shipping losses from German submarines, given to Parliament yesterday, cut the most moderate unofficial estimates in half. Arthur H Pollen, the distinguished British naval critic, has declared that enemy U-boats were sinking about 500,000 tons of British shipping a month. Lloyd George states that since the ruthless warfare was inaugurated the British loss has averaged under 250,000 tons a month, while in April, the most destructive menth of all, the losses aggregated only 560,000 gross tons.

The former Emperor at the last moment, says one newspaper, begged to be allowed to reside in the Urimea, but this was refused. As the train pulled out the soldiers shouted derisively at the former ruler of Russia. The location of the new prison grows that it will be Siberia.

The "Zvestiiya," the organ of the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates, protests against the secrecy surrounding the former Emperor's removal. It says it indicates the government's distrust of the people and the insecurity of the revolution.

At Tsarskoe-Selo the palace is being overhauled. The rooms occupied by Nicholas had been sealed up. It is said that at the different imperial palaces at Tsarskoe-Selo, Peterhof, Gatchina, Livadia and elsewhere there are 25,000 servants, nearly all of whom have lost their means of livelihood through the success of the revolution.

The former Czar, with his family and fifty servants, to-night is at Tebolsk, in Siberia, if plans outlined by the military authorities for the party at its destination has been given out, however.
